Unity Names Lisa McMahon as Director of Patient Services

Green Bay, Wis. – October 13, 2008 – Unity, leaders in hospice and palliative care, today announced the appointment of Lisa McMahon as Director of Patient Services.

In her role, McMahon is responsible for the overall supervision of care provided to Unity's hospice and palliative patients and their families in eastern Brown and Manitowoc counties. She also oversees operation of Unity's Jack and Engrid Meng Residence, the twelve private-room facility for hospice patients in need of specialized end-of-life care. Located in De Pere, it serves the needs of patients throughout Northeast Wisconsin. McMahon works in collaboration with Unity's Medical Director to coordinate patient-focused, high quality care to terminally ill patients.

Since 2005, McMahon had served as Team Coordinator. Prior to her hire at Unity, McMahon worked in Child Protective Services.

McMahon resides in Freedom with her husband and three sons. She holds a bachelor's in social work from the University of Wisconsin-Green Bay.

About Unity

Unity, a not-for-profit leader in hospice and palliative care, is a partnership of Green Bay's three not-for-profit hospitals – Bellin Health, St. Mary's Hospital Medical Center and St. Vincent Hospital. Unity is a continuation of the former Bellin Hospice program founded in 1977. Unity provides community-based hospice and palliative care, residential hospice care, and grief support in twelve counties in Northeast Wisconsin. Unity is a member of the National Hospice and Palliative Care Organization (NHPCO).

Unity is based in the Green Bay area with offices in Marinette, Shawano and Sturgeon Bay. For more information call (920) 338-1111 or visit www.unityhospice.org.
