FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Unity Names Brenda Mroczynski as Director of Patient Services

Green Bay, Wis. – September 20, 2007 – Unity, leaders in hospice and palliative care, today announced the appointment of Brenda Mroczynski as Director of Patient Services.

In her role, Mroczynski is responsible for the overall supervision of care provided to Unity's hospice and palliative patients and their families in Door, Kewaunee and northeastern Brown Counties. Mroczynski works in collaboration with Unity's Medical Director to coordinate patient-focused, high quality care to terminally ill patients.

Prior to her hire at Unity, Mroczynski was the Director of Nursing at Bornemann Nursing Home in Green Bay.

A native of Green Bay, Mroczynski resides in Brillion. She holds a diploma in nursing from the Bellin College of Nursing.

About Unity

Unity, a not-for-profit leader in hospice and palliative care, is a partnership of Green Bay's three not-for-profit hospitals – Bellin Health, St. Mary's Hospital Medical Center and St. Vincent Hospital. Unity is a continuation of the former Bellin Hospice program founded in 1977. Unity provides community-based hospice and palliative care, residential hospice care, and grief support in twelve counties in Northeast Wisconsin. Unity is a member of the National Hospice and Palliative Care Organization (NHPCO).

Unity is based in the Green Bay area with offices in Marinette, Shawano and Sturgeon Bay. For more information call (920) 338-1111 or visit www.unityhospice.org.
