FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Unity Names Nicole Priestaf Selner as Assistant Director of Outreach

Green Bay, Wis. – February 17, 2009 – Unity, leaders in hospice and palliative care, today announced the appointment of Nicole Priestaf Selner as Assistant Director of Outreach.

In her role, Priestaf Selner is responsible for assisting with the coordination of volunteer services, bereavement and general programs that support and give back to the communities that Unity serves. Volunteers are an integral part of Unity’s programs, bringing companionship to patients, respite to families and caregivers, support in administrative efforts and comfort to bereaved families through unique creative projects. Nearly 200 individuals throughout Northeast Wisconsin are part of the growing volunteer team. Family members and friends of Unity patients, as well as the general public, also find support through bereavement programs and educational opportunities carried out under the direction of Priestaf Selner’s Outreach team.

Prior to her time at Unity, Priestaf Selner served as Associate Director of Alumni and Parent Relations at St. Norbert College and, most recently, Community Relations Specialist at Unison Credit Union. She holds a bachelor’s degree in business administration from St. Norbert College.

Priestaf Selner currently serves as President of the Wrightstown Area Business and Community Alliance and was recently honored as one of the Green Bay Area Chamber of Commerce’s 40 People Under 40 You Should Know. She resides in De Pere with her husband, Andy.
